Dear Allen,

Many thanks for your kind letter regarding my screed on "International Law and Organizations". I mentioned your name to Jerry Morgan, knowing as I do your seasoned judgment in that field.

We follow your brilliant career with much interest. I am in Washington now only occasionally, but I enjoy a continuing, though relatively unimportant, thread of contact.

My wife Dorothy unfortunately underwent a rather serious operation this Fall, but she is making an excellent recovery.

With warm personal regards, I am

Sincerely yours,

Hon. Allen W. Dulles,
Director, Central Intelligence Agency,
Washington, D. C.
